The Cookalong Clwb

THE COOKALONG CLWB

Join local students from Waunfawr Primary School between 11am and 1pm for a lively, interactive food experience as they cook their deforestation-free school dish live. Discover their delicious homemade 'Pot Noodle', created in collaboration with the Cook Along Clwb — a healthy, nutritious twist that's guaranteed to surprise. Taste it for yourself, hear directly from the young people behind the idea, and meet MasterChef winner James Nathan, who'll be on hand to chat about how school meals can be improved for both people and planet. With Tropical Forest Charity, Size of Wales, there on the day, plus vox pops, conversation and plenty of chances to get involved, this is more than a tasting — it's part of a growing movement to protect and restore tropical forests through the food we eat. Think you can name the five everyday ingredients linked to forest loss? Take part in a fun, eye-opening game to find out... you may never look at your lunch the same way again.

Wanda & Rhonda the Waitresses

Very fun and chatty! They have a trolley laden with buns, party food and cocktails, accompanied with music. They take requests for songs, for food and any subject worth a gossip. Always eager to serve and make people happy as long as they haven't eaten everything themselves and not distracted with dancing and chatting. They will bring a great energy and laughter to any event. Service with a smile!

Wonder Kitchen Gadgets

With their mobile kitchen demonstration booth, Barry and Pam are on a mission to showcase the latest cutting-edge, labor-saving kitchen gadgets. Their comedy demonstrations are as slick as they are unconvincing, and shoppers are left in no doubt as to why "none of these wonder products are available in the shops". Wonder at the "Hands free chopper"....it slices and dices quickly and indiscriminately! Behold the patented game changing 'unbreakable' crockery Marvel at how dehydrated water could speed your cooking times...

Mr Frank Furter

Mr Frankfurter will be wandering around the festival for some fantastic photo opportunities.
